Notable Memories	Experinces that have shaped your life, or fond memories.
Childhood	During Thanksgiving dinner when I was just 4 years old, I remember asking my parents if I could say a prayer before the meal. They kindly agreed, and at first, my prayer started normally. However, to everyone's surprise, I just decided to switch things up and roast my siblings in the midst of my prayer.
Elementary School	Getting to sing Stitches by Shawn Mendes at my school talent show with a friend that I have know for so long. We still cringe about it to this day but little us really had a great time with it.
Middle School	Meeting my 8th grade history teacher. My love and passion for learning about various countries, cultures , and politics was shaped in that class. She is one of many people who inspired me to major in political science.
High School	I was in ASB in highschool and because of that I was often at school for extended periods of time. Homecoming weekend my senior year we were at school for like 12 hours everyday from Thursday to Sunday and we got to really get to know eachother, have plenty of dance/ karaoke sessions, and just shared so many laughs. Have many snap memories to prove it

Work History	Have only really worked as a babysitter and a barista. Getting to know and meet new people on a daily as a barista was the best part of the job
Inspiring Experience	Serving as a middle school youth mentor from 9th grade till right before I left for college. Got the opportunity to be apart of so many young people's lives who in many cases had already overcome so much in their lives. They inspired me and helped shape me into the person that I am today.
